

David Zimmermann

Chief Executive Officer
Blackoak Capital

David joined Blackoak Capital in 2013 and has over 21 years of experience in real estate investment, asset management and finance in Australia and the United Kingdom. He was responsible for the firm's transition away from single asset syndication and into strategic thematic investments, focused on risk adjusted returns.

Before joining Blackoak Capital, David was a Partner at Brockton Capital LLP, a UK focused Private Equity Real Estate Manager based in London with gross assets under management of $2.44 billion. Whilst at Brockton, David was responsible for origination and management of investments across asset classes such as office, retail, industrial, private hospitals, hotels and hospitality.

After nine years in London David returned to Australia and has been responsible for originating over $500 million of investments across Australia in asset classes such as office, industrial, childcare, land subdivision, specialist disability accommodation and hospitality.
