

Sandra Peachey

National Director, Valuation & Advisory Savills

Sandra joined Savills in 2015 and now holds the position of National Director, Valuation and Advisory based in in the Sydney office

Sandra is a Senior Executive with a strong work ethic and a proven commitment to delivering excellence with solid people and project management skills, able to develop and plan appropriate and cost-effective strategies to ensure business objectives are met. Sandra has the proven ability to influence at senior management level as well as develop collaborative relationships with professional teams, third party stakeholders, employees and colleagues

Sandra oversees the functioning of the Residential Development division nationally, ensuring consistency of delivery, appropriate risk monitoring, implementation of new efficiency initiatives and change management.

Sandra's primary area of expertise is the provision of valuations of residential and mixed use development projects for mortgage security, financial reporting, and acquisition and disposal purposes.